

The Descendants of Johann Beckröge (1647-1731) of Walle (kr Verden), Germany

This Descendants List is in an extended (4-line) format that provides substantial additional information, including place data for events; as well as this introductory page. This list is very long (42 pages) and therefore the index at the end is particularly valuable.

Johann Beckröge (1647-1731) was born in Daverden near the end of the 30-Years War which devastated northern Germany and left the area in Swedish control for most of his lifetime. He married Wöbke Oostmann of Walle and in 1682 inherited her father's farm at Walle #6 known as Oostmanns. Thus began the tenure of the Beckröge family as a halbmeier (mid-sized farmer) in the village of Walle, which has now been incorporated into the city of Verden an der Aller.

Descendants of Johann Beckröge. This 9-generation descendants' list is a composite integrated from four distinct sources with significant additions provided by this website editor. Each of those sources seems to be well-researched using appropriate primary and secondary references. The history of the Beckröge's in Germany was prepared by Werner Beckröge. An earlier version of his work was first published on the Internet on this website. The history of the portion of the Lilje/Beckröge family that emigrated to South Africa is based on the e-book Lilje - 140 Years in South Africa authored by Rev. Dr. Dieter Reinhard Lilje. The story of the Elfers/Beckröge family in Idaho was provided (in part) by the late Jim Kohl as well as several Internet resources on the history of Idaho. The information about the Gerken family was gathered by Margrit Meyer (née Lühring) with the help of professional genealogists, and also appears (in part) elsewhere in this website.
