

The Descendants of Hans Lilje (c1540-c1599) of Steinhorst, Germany

This Descendants List is in an extended (4-line) format that provides substantial additional information, including place data for events; as well as this introductory page.

Descendants of Hans Lilje. This 12-generation descendants list is a composite of the work of others, integrated by this website editor with minor additions and alterations. The sources employed seem to be well-researched using appropriate primary and secondary references. I was first introduced to my wife's distant South African Lilje relatives by Enid Brown. Rev. Dieter Reinhard Lilje is responsible for much of the original genealogical research, and the entire history of the portion of the Lilje family that emigrated from Germany to South Africa. It is based upon his 2008 e-book Lilje -- 140 Years in South Africa. The sources for the Lilje family lines in Germany include the Australian website (www.lilje.awardspace.com) maintained by Kevin Lilje, who gives research credit to Werner Volker, and the extensive genealogical research done by Walter Lillie of Germany. The information about the Lilje family in Ohio was originally adapted from a sourced genealogy on www.RootsWeb.com prepared by Rebecca Pachasa, which was supplemented by additional census data, obituaries, etc. researched by this website editor. More recently, significant additional information and corrections were provided by Carol Lilje of Ohio, the principal Lilje family history researcher in the U.S.

Notes on early Lilje family history: The first recorded Lilje ancestor is thought to be Fricke Lylje, who in 1414 was an administrator in Celle, Germany. A Johann Lillige, who is recorded as living in Steinhorst in 1450. He is thought to be the great-grandson of Fricke. That Johann Lillige is also likely the great-grandfather of the man who is the starting point for this report, Hans Lilje who was born about 1540. Hans' surname was spelled "Lielie" in the contemporary records, but for subsequent generations in the Steinhorst and Lüsche records the name was spelled Lillien, Lilie or Lillie. Currently the two spellings used are Lillie (in Germany by the Rethen line) and Lilje (in Germany, South Africa, the United States and elsewhere). Lilje, was first used in the records of Hankelsbüttel at the time of Johann's 1692 baptism (generation 6). The spelling "Lilje" is used throughout this database to facilitate sorting and other automated processes.
