

Descendant List of Zvi Wehli (Hersch)

9 April 2020

The Wehli families are Heszlényi relatives by marriage. We trace the Wehli family back to several generations of highly respected Bohemian rabbis originating in the town of Volyně (Wolin). When Rabbi Aron Beer Herschwitz moved to Prague in the mid-18th century, he adopted Wehli as the family name ... which I believe to be a corruption of the name of his hometown. Several Wehli families later migrated from Prague to Vienna where some went into government service and converted to Christianity to enhance their professional prospects. The best known of these was Baron August Johann von Wehli (1810-1892) who was a university professor, member of the Austrian Parliament, President of the Danube Regulatory Commission, and for a brief period head of the Ministry of the Interior.
